

Contemporary Art Dealers of Dallas Announce
THE CADD ARTFAIR 2008
May 30 - June 1, 2008
at Three Three Three First Avenue in Dallas, Texas

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: February 1, 2008 - Contemporary Art Dealers of Dallas is pleased to announce the second annual CADD ARTFAIR 2008 featuring the city’s foremost art dealers from May 30 – June 1. CADD ARTFAIR 2008 will emphasize contemporary art by emerging talent as well as established artists from around the world. In addition, the new 40 page, 2008 CADD Art Guide to Dallas, will be complimentary to all art fair guests.

CADD ARTFAIR 2008 exhibitors include: And/Or Gallery, Conduit Gallery, Craighead-Green Gallery, Holly Johnson Gallery, Pan-American Art Projects, Gerald Peters Gallery, The Public Trust, Road Agent, Valley House Gallery and Sculpture Garden, Marty Walker Gallery, and Barry Whistler Gallery.

CADD ARTFAIR 2008 will be held at Three Three Three First Avenue, a beautifully restored loft-style venue near Deep Ellum, complete with spectacular views of the downtown skyline. The historic building, near the major intersection of Canton Street and Exposition Avenue, will provide an intimate and relaxed atmosphere for viewing contemporary art. Presenting Sponsor of CADD ARTFAIR 2008 is Three Three Three First Avenue.

A portion of the proceeds from CADD ARTFAIR 2008 will go toward a CADD Scholarship given to a graduating senior student from Booker T. Washington High School for the Performing and Visual Arts in Dallas.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS:

May 30	7-10 pm	Preview Party	$60 per person	by invitation only
May 31	12-8 pm	Fair Day	$10 per person	open to the public
June 1	12-5 pm	Fair Day	$10 per person	open to the public

Contemporary Art Dealers of Dallas (CADD) was formed for the purpose of promoting the advancement of contemporary art in the Dallas cultural community. CADD includes the city’s foremost contemporary visual art galleries. Members are committed to the highest standards of contemporary art exhibition, while recognizing the importance of integrity and responsibility in working with artists, collectors, museum professionals, and educators. In support of the Dallas visual art community, CADD will develop additional events and programs throughout the year. For additional information about CADD, visit www.caddallas.net

Three Three Three First Avenue blends historical charm with modern architectural details. Built in 1926, the loft-style building’s unique allure contrasts wildflower gardens and patio space against a downtown backdrop. The first floor combines retail and office, while the third floor offers eclectic, light-filled office space with a vibrant creative energy. On the second floor, Three Three Three First Avenue’s panoramic skyline views present an ultra-chic, upscale venue for one-of-a-kind weddings and events. For additional information on Three Three Three First Avenue, visit the web site at www.threethreethreefirstavenue.com or call (214) 826-0467.

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE CADD ARTFAIR 2008 PLEASE CONTACT:

Holly Johnson at 214-369-0169 / info@hollyjohnsongallery.com
Christina Rees at 214-749-4049 / info@road-agent.com